LIBBY - Received via E-Mail at Pig Harmony: Libby turned one year old on 10-24-16, I got her 12-23-15, I had her spayed and she is healthy about 40-45 pounds. A few months ago my German Shepherd decided she doesn't like any animals, so for fear of her hurting my pig, I sent the pig to live with my uncle & his wife. They have just informed me that they can no longer keep her because of their work schedules and that she was more work than they originally thought. I could bring her home with me however she would be living on concrete and I don't feel that is fair to her. She is a very sweet girl, my uncle has a 2 year old that she loves. Libby also was around my 3 cats when she lived with me and I had no issues. I really just need to find her a good home with a yard for her to play in. Please let me know what I can do. Thank you. LIBBY IS LOCATED IN TORRANCE, CA. Contact Pig Harmony for contact info on Libby: 818-203-9206 or E-Mail: piggywiggly@pigharmony.com

LILLY - Received via E-Mail at Pig Harmony: We are located in Simi Valley, CA. She is not spayed yet. I got her from a friend who had her a few days and realized that she could not keep her. My friend connected me with the lady that she bought the pig from, so I could ask questions before I took her. I was obviously lied to, as I have done much more research after the fact, now that I have seen that the dog clearly does not get along with the pig. I was told that they would be best friends, and would be fine together. Sad. I am heartbroken. I have the Lady's information if you want it. I am not trying to get anyone in trouble, I just feel a little stupid and mislead and don't want her to be harmed because of a poor decision on my part. Breeder refused to take piggy back. HERCULES - I am a 4-year old neutered male. I am currently staying with a family in San Pedro because my former owners moved to a non-pig friendly residence. Unfortunately my new family has not been able to take care of me very well due to a few different circumstances and would like for a loving family to adopt me and give me the attention I deserve. I am mild-tempered and have been around kids just fine. I am about 130 pounds. I am in good health and have been neutered, vaccinated and de-wormed. My current family is willing to pay for transportation costs and willing to provide a monthly ongoing donation for my expenses. If you would love to meet me, please contact Matthew at 424-224-0636 or Krystal at 424-477-4251

or you can E-Mail Krystal at Krystalynn40@hotmail.com or krsmrhooker@gmail.com
